Frank is a gentleman. Really, he is a gentle man. He wanted neither pictures nor stories of himself; but let me tell you. When I met Frank, he was 92 and he sketched because he loved to do so. On top of that he offered his drawings to others where he lives, so that they might find some joy in coloring. He was a DJ for his neighbours at their weekly dances. He laughed and joked and cared. He was and is a gentle man; kind of spirit.

Frank passed this year, and this is a service in his loving memory.

Bottom line, Frank graciously agreed to offer a collection of his sketches for a coloring book, all in aid of the Alzheimer Society.

How does this work? You donate... in honor of receiving this download. You get a copy of Frank's loving work Frank's Funnies© for your children or grandchildren or anyone who loves a little or alot of coloring. You can color within or outside the lines. All I ask is that, when you do, you think of the kindness and service of Frank, the gentle man. Enjoy!
